now, it is submitted for orders whether the Dist magistrate may not be consulted as to the desirability of these Offices with the same powers.

23/9/20. 3. In notifications nos. G 19396 and G 19398 dt 23.2.1920 the Amildars of Chamarajanagar and Hunsur Tks in the Mysore Dt and of Chickmagalur and Mudgere Tks in the Kadur Dt were invested with the power to try cases under the Breach of Contract Act for a period of six months. The period has expired or is about to expire, and orders are now to be issued in case the powers are to be continued. No reference in the matter has, however, been received from either of the District Magts.

4. In his letter dt 2.1.20 the Dt Magte, Kadur Dt, recommended the investing of the power temporarily for 6 months till some experience is gained as to whether the I class Magts will find time to try cases under the said Act. It is not known what the experience gained is and if approved, a draft enquiring will be put up.

5. In regard to Chamarajanagar
